

Madrid

Overview

Madrid is a perfect combination of diversified culture, multiple languages, fashion trends, traditional foods and nightlife all of which firmly place it as one of the best cosmopolitan cities in the world! People in Madrid like to party!... with late night dining and dancing in the calendar seven days a week! There is a huge amount to see and do as well as the excellent nightlife, including historical sites to explore, the Bernabéu stadium, home of Spanish football giant Real Madrid and for art lovers you can choose between the Prado Museum or the Reina Sofia Museum for a full range of world famous art. Group Tours come back year upon year to this ever changing electric city.
